

Kazimierz Zarankiewicz (1902-1959) Polish topologist. He taught at the Society for Scientific Courses in Warsaw its first year in 1906. His work confirmed a result by Urysohn regarding hereditarily locally connected continua. The Zarankiewicz problem concerns the edges of bipartite graphs.

L'Europe mathématique: histoires, mythes, identités By Cathrine Goldstein, Jeremy Gray, Jim Ritter p. 294

Handbook of the history of general topology, Volume 2 By Charles E. Aull, Robert Lowen p. 719